POLICY FOR THE FUTURE.

Discussion in Richmond College's Board

The Board of Trustees of Richmond Col-lege reassembled at the college yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, President J. L. M. Curry in the chair. There were twenty-eight members of the board present, and a large amount of business was transact-ed.

ed.

The first work of the session was the consideration of Professor B. Puryear's resignation as chairman of the faculty and professor of chemistry. The resignation was accepted, to take effect Saturday at

was accepted, to take elect saturday anoon.

One of the most interesting reports submitted was that of the Committee on Library, of which Rev. Dr. Cooper is chairman, showing the growth of the library and its value to the college. Puring the year 381 books have been received, of which 200 were a gift from Rev. Dr. J. W. M. Williams of Baltimore, a former student of the college. The library now contains more than 12,000 volumes in all.

The numerous applications for schools of Greek and Chemistry were turned over to a committee appointed to canvass the applications, with instructions to recommend for each chair three candidates, one of which the board will probably elect at their meeting to-day.

PROP. BOATWRIGHT'S INAUGURATION.

Mr. T. C. Williams, Jr., offered a resolution fixing next Saturday afternoon at a clock as the time, and the Library Hali as the place for Preident-elect Hoatwright to be inducted into office.

Hon. H. R. Pollard, chairman of the Committee on Programme for this occasion, offered the following recommendations, which were adopted by the board:

That the members of the Hoard and the Faculty and the specially invited guests be present, and that there be an address of welcome to the public by Hon. J. Taylor Ellyson, brief addresses, respectively by Professor W. D. Thomas, on the part of the Faculty: Wyndham R. Meredith, Esq., on the part of the alumni; Mayor Taylor, as the representative of the city, and Hon. Ashton Starke, on the part of the citizens of Richmond. The press sation of the keys and charter of the college to the new president will be made by Hon. J. L. M. Curry, president of the board. President Boatwright will respond, after which the benediction will be pronounced by the Rev. Thomas S. Dunraway, of Fredericksburg.

PUTURE POLICY OF THE COLLEGE

Mr. Boatwright was invited to appear before the board at 1 o'clock, and he made a very pleasing address, outlining his future plans, suggesting new lines of work, and asking for the sympathy and co-operation of the board and the friends of the college. A special prayer for the new president and his success was then offered by Rev. Dr. J. B. Lake, of Fau-ouler.

offered by Rev. Dr. J. B. Lake, of Fauquier.

A letter from Professor H. H. Harris, taking final leave of the board, was received and read.

During the meeting a leng and intercetting debate followed a motion outlining the future policy of the college in regard to its patronage. It was evident that the purpose of the board was that more work for the college be done in future, and a committee of five was appointed to-co-operate with the faculty in canvassing the State. This committee was also charged with the duty of providing multable exercises at the opening of the next session in September. After disposing of some unimportant routine matters the board adjourned to meet again at 10 o clock this morning at the college.

The Anumi Banquet.

the board adjourned to meet again at 19 o clock this morning at the college.

The Alumni Banquet.

The Alumni of Richmond College held their annual banquet at Murphy's Hotel last night. Previous to the banquet a brief business session was held. The President, Rev. Dr. R. H. Pitt, formally introduced the degree men to the association, and they were elected members of the organization.

At 9:30 o'clock the banquet was held, among those in attendance being J. William Jones, D. D.; J. B. Lake, D. D., of Frauquer; A. E. Owen, D. D., of Portsmouth; T. S. Dunaway, D. He spoke in tender phrases of his devotion to the college, and be willing and glad to do anything in his power for its welfare. Dr. E. C. Dr. James Nelson spoke on the subject of "Teachers," and Rev. Dr. Carter Helm Jones responded in a pleasing manner to "The Preacher." Professor F. W. Endeavor Convention May Come. Great interest is being taken in Virginia in the great Christian Endeavor convention in Boston in July, and it is certain that a delegation will go from the Old Dominion at least a hundred strong.

Maps of the city of Boston will $\frac{1}{2}$ distributed, and convention badges given all who intend to go. A move is already on foot to make Richmond one of the points for a side-trip from the 1896 convention, which will be held in Washington, and the Virginia delegation will probably go to Boston authorized to extend the invitation to those web expect to visit the Washington convention, to run down to Richmond during their stay.

MAY BE AN OIL FAMINE. 11,000 More Barrels Used Dally Than Pro

oil interest has in the past few days dealt it by the Standard in the purchas of three independent refineries. The independent oil Interests have secured two new refineries, which they are now supplying with oil. The two are the Fogan and Oil Creek refineries at Titusville. The Fogan refinery was owned by Rice, Robinson & Fogan, but the lastnamed has purchased the interests of his two partners, and the refinery is now considered a link in the chain of independent plants. The independents have not, however, given up the plan of building one or two brand-new refineries near Oil City.

The three refineries bought in by the Standard will probably be shut down before long, owing to a shortage of oil.
They are still in operation, but an announcement of their being closed for an indefinite period is daily expected.

The Standard price of credit balances remains at fl.45 a barrel, despite the continued decrease of stocks and no increase in production. The production is now said to be nearly eleven thousand barrels behind the consumption daily.
What the situation may ultimately lead to is a matter of conjecture, but at the present rate it appears as if there might be an oil famine within a year. In the light of this possibility the low price seems very strange. Although stocks are lower and production is no higher than it was during the oil flurry a couple of months ago, the prices have been field dewn by the Standard with an iron grip.
The increase in the production of Lima oil by no means offsets the shortage of the Pennsylvania product. Pennsylvania oil refines at about eighty per cent., while Lima is a poor oil, refining only at about twenty-five per cent, while Lima oil will have to be enormous, in order to offset the failure to increase Pennsylvania production.

With the comparatively low price of oil, and the almost unbroken succession of dusters found by oil prospectors, field operators are becoming discouraged, and the number of new weils being put down is not as large weekly as it was one month ago.

During May the total decrease in stocks was 235,763 barrels, leavin

The local fans will have an opportunity of seeing the Hustlers play ball this afternoon. The game will be called at 5 o'clock, and Norfolk will be the opponents of the locals. The visitors are much etronger than when they last played here. This is shown by their recent good work in capturing two games from Roanoke. PRETTY JUNE WEDDINGS.

DR. JOSEPH E. GILPIN LEADS MISS PLEASANTS TO THE ALTAK.

The Groom a Professor in Johns Hopking University and the Bride a Popular

PETERSBURG, June 19.—Special.—At Grace Episcopal church this afternoon at 6:39 o'clock, Miss Katherine Todd Pieasants, daughter of Dr. John M. Pieasants, chief deputy in the United States internal revenue office in this city and Dr. Joseph Elliott Glipin, of Baitimore were united in holy wedlock in the presence of a large and brilliant company. The rector, Rev. John Ridout, officiated, assisted by Rev. S. K. Winn, paster of the Second Presbyterian church.

The chancel was decorated with ferns, palms, and daises, while the bright tapers in several candelabra shed a pretty light upon the marriage altar. When the bridal party arrived they were met at the vestibule by the flower girls and bridesmaids, who entered through the chancel, advanced down the middle alsie to the main entrance, and then joined the bride and her maid of honor.

Then the procession marched up the alsie to the altar in the following order the organist. Miss Anna Stallard, playing the joyous Lohengrin wedding march:

The ushers, the bridesmaids, the flower girls, the maid of honor, the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, the groom and his best man, his brother, Mr. Henry Gordon Gilpin, of Baltimore, came through the chancel, and met the bridal party at the altar.

THE BRIDE'S GOWN.

The bride were a gown of white sating duchess, trimmed with white chiffon, she had the conventional veil, fastened with sweet-pea, instead of orange, blossoms, and soe carried a bouquet of bride roses. As the rector, Rev. Mr. Ridout read the marriage service, Miss Stallard played softly and expressively the familiar Take Thou This Ring, from Sommanbula. When the service was concluded, and the benediction had been invoked upon the newly wedded pair, the organ pealed out with the Mendelssohn wedding march, and the bridal party left the church, their path being literally strewn with roses by the little flower sits who preceded them, bearing legators.

The Teachers' Assembly is in full swing at Morehead. To-day's programme gives two excellent addresses by Captain C. B. Denson, of Raleigh, and Captain W. R. Henry of Henderson. Mowry, president of Martha's Vineyard's Summer school, delivers an address on "The Supreme Moment in the History of North America, and Some of its Results," Miss Virginia Cufbertson, of Ohio, will at night give poetical and humorous recitations.

Raleigh is much interested in a propoted air line to Norfolk, to be operated by the Southern. The question of such a road seems to be pretty well assured, but whether it will go to Spring Hope, and thence to Pinners point, or via Selma, is being figured on at present.

The human stomach is a pear-shaped bag, inte which all food grops at once when swallowed. Three things happen: The blood rushes into the sucstance of the stomach (not into its interior) to heat it; thousands of little ducts or pipes pour copiously forth a fluid called the gastric juice; and then the stomach beguns a wave-like, churning movement, which thoroughly mixes the gastric juice with the fcod, and by and by change the whole into a gray-looking, semiliquid paste called chyme. This is digestion as it takes place in health.

But, look you! If the stomach fails to furnish the gastric juice, or fails to furnish enough of it, the food simply lies in the stomach and turns sour, putreles, ferments—as it would in a warm, moist alif outdoors. This is inducestion, dyspepsia, or gastritis. Having no other way of escape, the poisons so engendered pass into the circulation and set up a train of results like these Headache, foul taste in the mouth, loss of appetite and nausea, furred tongue, disordered heart action, pervous weakness and prostration, chills followed by heat fashes, distress and weight in the chest after eating, fugilive muscular pains, followed in time by grave local adments, etc. All this, bear in mind, comes of a more or less complete failure of the stomach to secrete gastric juice.

Having studied this subject for many years, the Shakers of Mt. Lebanon (N. Y.)—famous as medictnal chemists and herballsts—rought among the planta cujtivated by them only for a remedy which would have the distinct and expectal effect of stimplating the flow of gastric juice to a normal amount and at the same time of the full, natural digestive arength. No other so-called remedies for dyspepsia have this purpose in view, yet it is the absolutely essential thing. Successful in their efforts, even beyond their hopes, they have placed their discovery on the market under the name of the Shaker Digestive Cordial. Its effects are immediate and radical. Reflects are immediate and radical. Reflects are immediate and selection for
